We have fallen upon strange times when the ad, seats in the House of Representatives depends upon the ipse dixit of a mere clerk, Nachville Dispatch.

This is not a whit stranger than the fact, that sovereign States - States declared never to have been out of the Union, are forced to shape their action by the ipse dixit of the President. In the ommencement of the work of restoration, the states were told that all they had to do, was to abolish slavery, in their amended Constitutions, nd to annul their scression ordinances. O' this Election to take place in March next. we had no right to complain; it was the stipulated Nov. 3, '65-te price for peace and reconstruction, and when the WE are authorized to announce CHARLES M States promptly paid it, we supposed the bargain STUART, as a candidate for Sheriff of Montwas completed on both sides. But, before the re- gomery county. In the list of Tennesseeans recently pardoned, we are pleased to see the name of our townsman, C. O. Faxon. His pardon, however, is not as full as it might have been. It embraces all his sins against the United States government, it is true; but, it was urged against him, that he is unpardonably ugly, and the President withholds his decision on that point until it can be seen whether ONE BRICK STORE HOUSE or not reconstruction will effect any change in the ONE FRAME TOBACCO FACTORY ugly features of his case.
